

AimcoR Group is pleased to announce that John C. Ziambras, CLU, has been named
President and CEO!

Recently AimcoR Group LLC's Equity Partners voted to elect John C. Ziambras, CLU, to their top executive position. His strategic vision, methodical management style, and proven track record will help AimcoR continue its steady path towards becoming a formidable independent national marketing organization.

Prior to assuming his responsibilities with AimcoR, for a couple of years John fulfilled a lifelong dream of returning to his native land, Greece, where he served as the Chief Financial and Administrative Officer at the American Farm School in Thessaloniki. There he oversaw the financial and administrative management of all divisions of the institution; including a Secondary School, the Dimitris Perrotis College and an Educational Farm.

Before moving overseas, John's expansive industry experience encompassed being Managing Director and General Manager of the Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC)'s Insurance and Retirement Services division, where he led the product management, marketing, business development, customer relationship management, strategy and finance functions. Earlier, John was Vice President of National Accounts for Prudential Select Brokerage, a division of the Prudential Financial, Inc, and prior to this, he managed the National Insurance Consulting Practice of KPMG LLP in New York City. He began his business career as a registered representative and sales manager with Northwestern Mutual Life and New York Life.

John graduated from Princeton University with a degree in Economics and has also served frequently as a speaker and panelist at industry conferences. He is well-known as an expert with both local and national groups associated with professional and high-net-worth individuals on personal financial planning and insurance issues.

Welcome John!
